MURFREESBORO, Tenn. – The Cerces, one of the Midwest’s most popular family groups, have just renewed their contract with Southern Spin Entertainment. The group has re-signed for another year of exclusive publicity from the organization. The group will continue to have access to all media publications serviced by Southern Spin Entertainment, as well as marketing possibilities with the organization.

“We were extremely pleased with Southern Spin in our first year with the company,” mentioned Cliff Cerce of the Cerces. “They did everything they promised plus more, and we are excited to be a part of this company for another year.”

“The Cerces are a great group,” mentioned Amy Marie Unthank, co-owner of SSE Group. “They know who they are as a ministry team and where they want to go, and we are happy to help them along on their journey!”

The Cerces just released their new project, Treasures - Old and New, earlier this year. The new recording contains 14 songs – seven classic Southern Gospel songs, as well as seven original songs.
